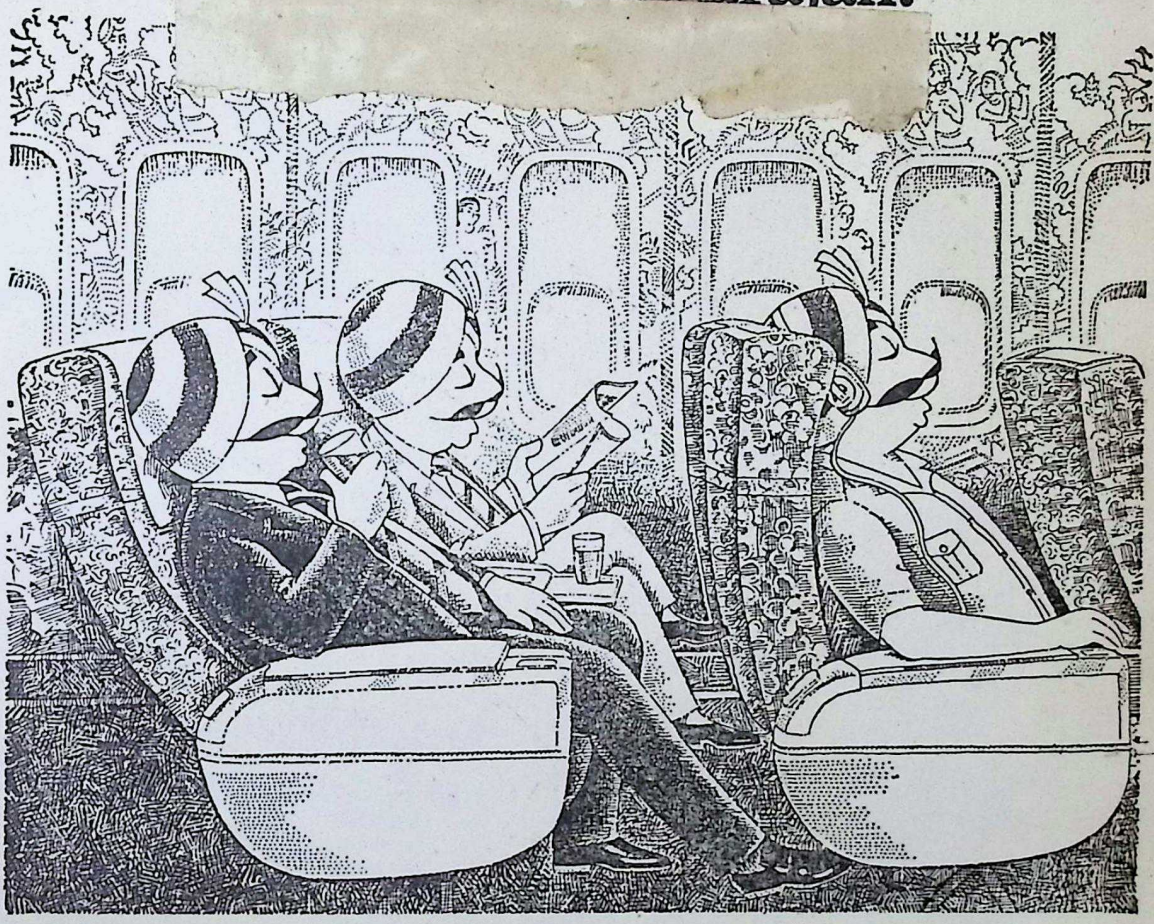
If you're flying Executive Class, fly like a Maharajah.



More legroom. More elbowroom. More comfort.

It's a business proposition worth thinking about.

Every seat either a window or an aisle seat. The seat itself is plush and spacious—measuring up to the most exacting standards.

Nine comfortable inches on the armrest helps you get in some last minute work.

There are a couple of bonuses too.

Complimentary drinks to help you unwind. Followed by a selection of delicious Indian or Continental cuisine served by gracious sari-clad hostesses.

The next time you fly abroad on business consider what a great deal you're getting.

Including what you can take home... lovely memories of Air-India's Executive Class — on all 747 routes.

Indian Coffee, distinctive and delicious, gets its special aroma from the rich soil, climate and culture of India.

Nurtured on the shaded slopes of the Western Ghats with its spurs extending eastwards. Indian Coffee is grown under ecological conditions ideal for the growth of the finest coffees.

Coffee in India covers 2,26,848 hectares and accounts for 1,08,138 estates. Of this 1,05,848 are holdings below ten hectares, while 2,290 are holdings above ten hectares. Together these estates employ 3,44,505 daily workers. India's production of coffee for the season 1984–85 is estimated at around 1,96,213 tonnes.

The Coffee Board works for the growth and development of the Indian Coffee Industry. The Central Coffee Research Institute which is located in Balehonnur of the Chikmagalur District of Karnataka State has helped considerably in the scientific growth of Coffee plantations in India.

Coffee that is grown has to be processed or cured. There are 39 Coffee curing works in the country. A whole range of operations contribute to the quality of Indian Coffee. Careful picking of the coffee fruits, scientific processing, curing done to set standards and quality assessment, lead to the export of only the best coffee beans.

Coffee export earnings during 1984–85 were to the tune of Rs. 209 crores.

Today, the Coffee Board's efforts are aimed at increased production in traditional areas, while bringing non-traditional areas under Coffee to ensure adequate supplies to cope with the increasing tempo of exports and internal consumption.

Which other polyester fibre manufacturer would tell its customers "24 different ways to make a safari suiting", "two fold vs. three fold yarn suiting" or "coarse yarn suiting"?

That is why, both Swadeshi Polytex and Jailene remain far ahead of competitors. As do the customer mills

PREFACE

INDIA WHO'S WHO is intended primarily to serve the needs of the public at home and abroad for an authoritative source of basic biographical information about India's leading personalities who by virtue of their position and achievements have proved to be of significant value in their respective fields.

India Who's Who is today an accepted source of information and is widely referred to by all concerned. It is arranged professionwise and contains some 4000 biographies of people prominent in all walks of life, including Government, politics, civil service, business and finance, education, art, entertainment and sports, law and trade union. Only individuals active in their professions have been listed. The index catalogues all.

Each entry is updated annually. A copy is sent to the person concerned for revision and changes are incorporated accordingly. Nevertheless, many entries are not confirmed, may be because of change in addresses of the individuals concerned. An asterisk after a biography indicates repetition of the old entry for lack of latest information. Entries not confirmed for three consecutive years have been dropped. Some 200 new entries have been included this year.

Every year nearly 600 fresh bio-data forms are posted to individuals for selecting new entries. On receipt, the new bio-data forms are sent to prominent people in the respective fields for their opinion. Thereafter, our Editorial Board makes the final selection.

For easy reference, this annual publication is divided into seven main sections, each with allied professions grouped under it. Changes received or noticed later have been grouped separately as "Occurrences During Printing" which precedes the main text.

We would welcome comments and suggestions from our readers for improving the content, range and quality of the publication. While every care is taken to ensure accuracy, neither the publisher nor the printer is liable for any loss incurred through misprint or other circumstances.

From the dreaded drought to the life-giving flow of constant water on tap. From arid ground to green acres. From a life of little hope to a thriving, busy populace. The Changing Picture springs to colour from a drab canvas.

At Mahindra, we are happy to play this role, of a catalyst, in the development and improvement of backward areas. Kandivli or Nasik, Pimpri or Igatpuri—wherever we go, we have looked to the needs and welfare of the community. Education, housing, health-care. And even civic amenities like proper roads, drinking water, power and gardens have been our first priority.

The theme is to grow and develop together. To give back to society in no small measure, what we reap from it. This is the unwritten credo at Mahindra. A way of thinking that has become a way of life.

LIC's wait reduction plan: It'll shed a load off your time.

Some time ago a small cell in LIC started working on ways to better our customer service. A systematic reorganisation of all our offices was planned.

We tried it out as a pilot project in three divisions. We reviewed the results. They were spectacular.

In one division, the time taken for issuing new policy bonds had gone down: from an average 35 days to 10 days.

The time taken for granting loans had been cut from an average 12 days to just 3.

The waiting period at the cash counter had also been sharply reduced, from 35 minutes on an average to a mere 7.

The percentage of outstanding claims had been brought down from an average 13% to 8%.

Thus encouraged, we are implementing the reorganisation plan in 41 divisions out of our total 43 on a progressive basis. Bombay and Calcutta divisions will have separate reorganisation plans.

LIC celebrates its 29th anniversary this year with greater confidence in its ability to offer satisfactory customer service.

Peoples welfare our primary goal.

We all share one ideal —STEEL

We all need steel in our lives. Think of how often steel touches your life and work and strengthens behind the scenes.

SAIL is proud of its men behind the machines — the largest talent bank in the country. But that is not the end of our quest. The challenges we face lead to others and our men meet them with a spirit of resolute dedication.

Our people gather from all over India. From diverse cultures, religions and races, motivated by the common ideal — STEEL. Inspired by a team spirit to face tomorrow's challenges.

Nothing creates a stronger human bond than an ideal that is shared. That is the STEEL bond.

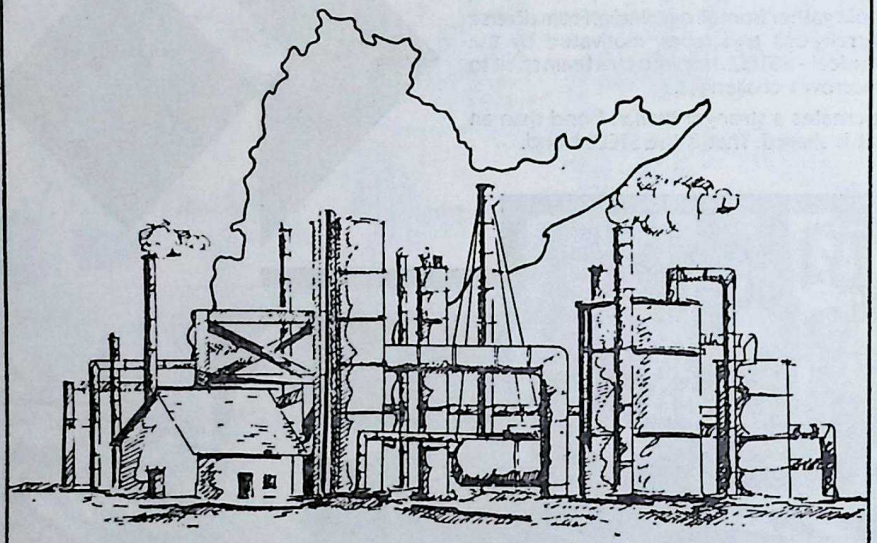
Andhra Pradesh takes rapid strides on the industrial front



For the last 2½ years, Andhra Pradesh has been witnessing a rapid industrial growth. A total of 168 letters of intent, 84 industrial licences and 503 D.G.T.D. registrations have been received from Government of India. There has been a total capital investment of Rs. 838 crores and 70,000 persons have been provided employment.

New industries coming up in the Intensive Industrial Development Areas of Adilabad, Anantapur and Srikakulam districts, with an investment of Rs. 10 crores or above, offering employment to 250 persons and more are eligible for 50 acres of Government land free of cost. In case, Government land is not available, land subsidy at the rate of Rs. 5,000 per acre is given. Investment subsidy at the rate of 15% subject to a ceiling of Rs. 15 lakhs, deferred sales tax facility upto Rs. 1 crore, 25% rebate on power and water tariff are also available even to those industries being set up at a cost of less than Rs. 10 crores. There are 20 growth centres in the 7 districts of Vijayanagaram, Visakhapatnam, East Godavari, West Godavari, Krishna, Guntur and Rangareddy, where incentives on a slightly different scale are available.

The progressive industrial policy of the State has, in fact, given a major fillip to the establishment and growth of industries.

Dalda, Pears, Lux: these and other consumer products helped make Hindustan Lever a household word. Today the company is moving in a new direction, from the home to the heart of India's core sector.

Directions for growth

Today's emphasis is clearly in technology-intensive areas of national priority. Over 60% of the total investment in fixed assets today represents core-sector projects or sophisticated technology.

Using science with sensitivity

The company's Research & Development has always been attuned to India's needs. Significant R & D successes have been achieved in import-substitution of edible oils and energy conservation. A third major breakthrough is the development of a plant-growth nutrient which boosts crop yields at low cost.

Products made in India — for the world

Hindustan Lever's national distribution network, always a major strength, has gone international with exports to 57 countries. These will soon cross Rs. 100 crores, making the company one of India's biggest private-sector exporters. Consignments range from the company's own products to non-traditional goods like carpets and garments made by small-scale entrepreneurs.

A company of people

It is our people — 9,000 managers, scientists, engineers and workers, each committed to excellence — who have made us what we are. A company meeting the challenge of change. Making tomorrow happen today.

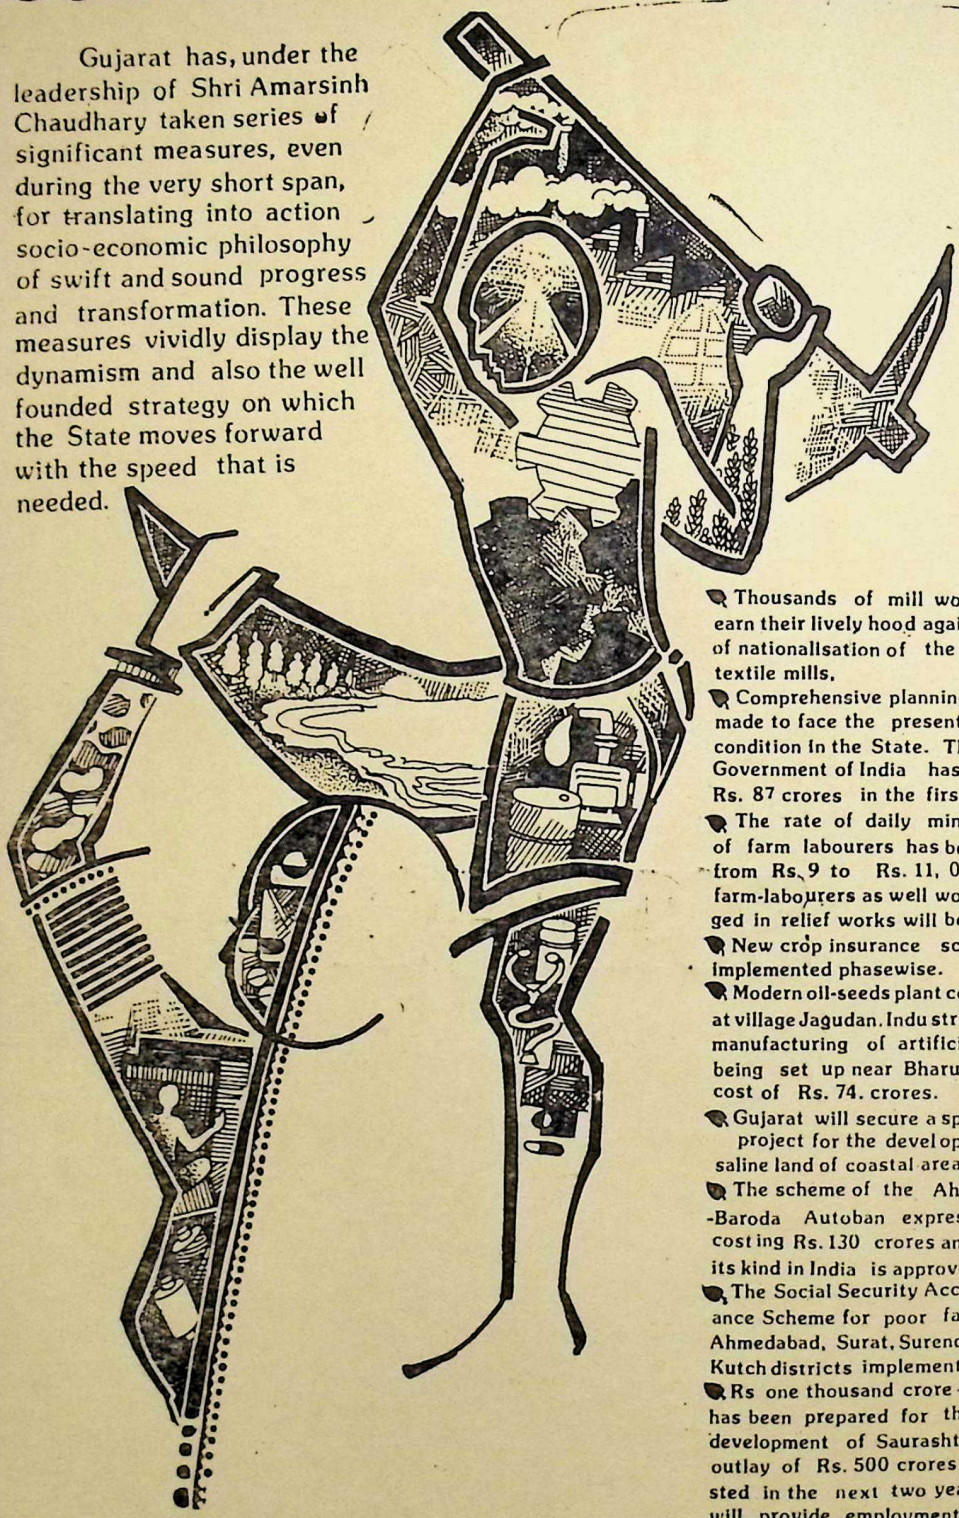
GUJARAT MOVES FORWARD

Gujarat has, under the leadership of Shri Amarsinh Chaudhary taken series of significant measures, even during the very short span, for translating into action socio-economic philosophy of swift and sound progress and transformation. These measures vividly display the dynamism and also the well founded strategy on which the State moves forward with the speed that is needed.



- Thousands of mill workers will earn their lively hood again as a result of nationalisation of the 12 closed textile mills.
- Comprehensive planning has been made to face the present draught condition in the State. The Government of India has sanctioned Rs. 87 crores in the first phase.
- The rate of daily minimum wages of farm labourers has been increased from Rs. 9 to Rs. 11, Over 24 lakh farm-labourers as well workers enga ged in relief works will be benefitted.
- New crop insurance scheme implemented phasewise.
- Modern oil-seeds plant commissioned at village Jagudan. Industrial unit for manufacturing of artificial yarn is being set up near Bharuch at the cost of Rs. 74. crores.
- Gujarat will secure a special central project for the development of the saline land of coastal areas.
- The scheme of the Ahmedabad -Baroda Autoban express highway costing Rs. 130 crores and the first of its kind in India is approved.
- The Social Security Accident Insurance Scheme for poor families in Ahmedabad, Surat, Surendranagar and Kutch districts implemented.
- Rs one thousand crore-Master plan has been prepared for the industrial development of Saurashtra area. An outlay of Rs. 500 crores will be invested in the next two years. This will provide employment to about 50 thousand people

Bad breath has little to do with your teeth.

And a lot to do with the health of your gums.

If your gums aren't healthy, you could suffer from bad breath.

This is a medical fact.

And, no amount of care for your teeth alone can really help. Not even with the strongest flavoured toothpaste.

But there is one proven way to care for both your teeth and your gums. The famous Forhan's way.

Forhan's isn't an ordinary toothpaste. It was specially created by a dentist who understood the vital importance gums played in the health of your teeth.

Weak gums lose their grip on the teeth and allow odour-causing bacteria to collect.

Forhan's has an exclusive astringent which actually tightens the gums and keeps them firm and healthy. And your breath clean and fresh.

If you haven't started using Forhan's yet, do so.

As the years go by, you'll understand why millions trust the special care of Forhan's.

Forhan's—the toothpaste for your gums.

"हम सबके लिए और सब हमारे लिए"

देश की अखण्डता और आजादी को हमारे आपसी मतभेदों से ही खतरा होता है। उसकी समृद्धि और शक्ति के लिए स्वदेशवासियों को एक दूसरे का हाथ पकड़ कर साथ-साथ खड़ा होना होगा। स्वदेश में अमन चैन की गारंटी है हमारी एकता और परस्पर सहयोग।

"हम सबके लिए और सब हमारे लिए" की भावना से ही काम कर हम अपने छोटे-मोटे झगड़े सुलझा सकेगें। क्या हम धर्म की आड़ में अकारण ही आपसी वैमनस्य बढ़ाकर या छुआछूत जैसी सदियों पुरानी गलत परम्पराओं को स्वीकार कर, राष्ट्र को एक रख सकेगें ? विघटन और विद्रोह की बात वहीं उभरती है जहां असन्तोष होता है और भेदभाव से असन्तोष की आग भड़कती है। इसलिए विचार और व्यवहार दोनों में विभेद की बू नहीं होनी चाहिए।

एकता की नींव पर ही मजबूत और खुशहाल देश की इमारत खड़ी की जा सकती है। आपसी सहयोग और परस्पर सद्भाव से ही राष्ट्र निर्माण का कार्यक्रम सफल हो सकता है। एक संस्कृति, एक इतिहास, एक नैतिक मानदण्ड, भविष्य की एक कल्पना, अनादि काल से एक भौगोलिक पृष्ठ भूमि और सुख-दुख की एक सी अनुभूति को देखते हुए हम सरलता से अलगाव की ताकतों को कुचल सकेगें। यही हमारा प्रयास होना चाहिए।

A MARATHON RUN BY MSRTC BUSES

Today, Maharashtra State Road Transport Corporation is acclaimed as the biggest organisation of its kind in the world. Its 11,280 buses ply on a network of 11,596 routes, carry over 38 lakh passengers and run on the average 23 lakh kilometres every day. This amounts to circling the globe 56 times daily and over 20 thousand times every year. A marathon run indeed!

Every seventh bus on road amongst the nationalised passenger road transport undertakings in India belongs to MSRTC; and with its 83,110 employees it is perhaps the largest single employer in Maharashtra after the State Government.

DDA In Delhi's Development

Of many ruling powers and dynasties that Delhi has had in the last 500 years, each had vied with the last to leave its own imprint on the city of Delhi. It was, however, left to the people of Independent India, and its nation building agencies to build Delhi as cosmopolitan city in the image of its variegated glory.

In this historic task, the Delhi Development Authority (DDA) constituted by the Government in 1957, has played a major role as the Implementing Agency for the Delhi Master Plan designed to tackle challenges posed by a city pulsating with new life after Independence.

Today DDA has emerged as the pace-setter in urban development. On one hand it undertook a gigantic and assemblage enterprise to launch India's most active public housing programme, earmarking about 70% of its solely for the weaker sections. It has built over 100,000 houses. Over 97% of the plots in India's first and Asia's biggest project, Rohini, have been earmarked for the weaker sections. The project when complete will accommodate nearly 900,000 people. On the other, it undertook world's largest ever peacetime resettlement programme, rehousing a population of over 10 lakh people providing shelter and wherewithals of modern living to the erstwhile homeless.

In between, it successfully embarked on decentralisation of business districts to solve the problems of city congestion and traffic that is the bane of metropolises around the world. The places of work, shopping and recreation have been brought in close proximity to the places of living. For effective micro-level development DDA has divided urban Delhi into 9 broad Planning Divisions and 139 Development Zones. Each division has been conceived as a self-sufficient unit in residential, commercial, social and recreational facilities.

And yet, in the midst of such pressing priorities, the unique 'green' character of Delhi was not only preserved but vastly enhanced by bringing under afforestation about 7,000 hectares of land with features like 55 wood-lands, 830 parks, 15 rock gardens, 11 lakes mostly around monuments and 90 lakh trees. The advance of the desert has been arrested for good through planting forests in the open spaces between the outcorp of the semi-extinct Aravalis.

CITIZENS OF DELHI

Electricity From Domestic Waste

* Delhi Administration with the assistance of the Department of Non-Conventional Energy Sources, Govt. of India is the first in the country to take the initiative to extract combustible gas and eventually generate electricity from a sanitary landfill at Timarpur. Landfills are used for disposing of municipal solid wastes.

* The process is simple. Using perforated pipes, a well is bored into a sanitary landfill and then a vacuum created at its bottom. The vacuum sucks the gas which is then fed into a nearby generator through pipes for producing electricity.

* Eight such wells have already been bored 200 feet apart from each other. One well is adequate for one acre of landfill to produce 100 kilowatts of electricity and thus ten acres can produce 1000 kilowatts (one Megawatt) of electricity. The Timarpur landfill is spread over about 80 acres and so has the potential to produce 8 Megawatts of electricity.

* The cost per well is approximately Rs 10 lakhs which includes installation of generators, compressor pumps and pipes.

* The cost of electricity so produced has been worked out to be just 10 Paise per unit as compared to about 60 Paise per unit through the conventional methods of power generation.

* At present there are about 50 landfills in use by different agencies like the MCD, DDA, NDMC and the Cantonment Board in Delhi. About 8000 tonnes of garbage is generated per day in the Union Territory of Delhi. This quantity is likely to double by the turn of the century.

* The gas is formed through bacterial action on garbage through fermentation process. This process is commom in nature.

The peak consumption of electricity in Delhi is 850 Megawatts per day and it is increasing at a rate of 15 per cent per annum.

* If the entire refuse of Delhi is systematically taken to the landfills, Delhi will have the potential to produce about 60 Megawatts of electricity a day which will be equal to about 8 per cent of the total peak demand. This per day generation can be further increased by 16 Megawatts annually. Electricity so produced can be fed into DESU's grid for distribution to consumers.

* A single landfill is sufficient for generating electricity for a minimum period of 10 years. After this the refuse can be taken out of the landfill and used as valuable manure. The emptied landfills can be refilled with urban waste and this cycle can continue indefinitely.

* At present the gas formed in the landfills is diffusing into the atmosphere and is polluting the environment. This new project would serve a dual purpose; help check pollution and keep the environment cleaner and also, to an extent, meet the growing electricity demand of the Capital.

If you have any ideas for augmenting the production of electricity through some other means, please write to Nagaland is poised for a big leap forward during the seventh five Year Plan.

During the next Five years, Nagaland ambitiously aimed for:—

1. a separate University.
2. 500 bedded Referral Hospital near Dimapur
3. a Youth Hostel at Dimapur
4. an Engineering College.
5. A Modern Stadium Complex at Kohima
6. Construction of New Capital Complex with modern amenities.
7. Supply of Drinking Water and Electricity to all the villages in the state.
8. Commissioning of Doyang Hydel Project with 105 MW capacity.
9. A mining School and a woman Polytechnic at Kohima

These are but a few major projects to be undertaken during the 7th Plan. But all these and others aim for the creation of a new Nagaland with more productivity and more employment opportunities. Achievement of Self-Sufficiency in food is another important aim of the State Government.

This picture of Laxmi is from the Glaxo audio-visual "Let My Child See" on Xerophthalmia.

Glaxo in its contribution to disease prevention has especially devised audio-visual productions (slide-sound presentations) for public health education in urban slums and villages. The diseases covered are TB, Xerophthalmia (blinding malnutrition), home remedies for diarrhoeas and fevers, immunisation and nutrition.

The Ministry of Health and Family Welfare of the Government of India in its Statement on National Health Policy emphasizes that there will be only marginal results in health programmes "unless nation-wide strategies are launched to provide health information in easily understandable form, to motivate the development of an attitude for healthy living".

Glaxo — a concern for health
